

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 10, to Tuesday January 13, 1761.

St. James's, January 13.

THE following Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Newtown in the Isle of Wight, has been presented to His Majesty by Harcourt Powell, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor and Burgeses of your Ancient Borough of Newtown in the Isle of Wight, humbly approach your Royal Presence to express our Loyalty and Attachment to your Sacred Person, and our Joy on your Accession to the Throne.

We cannot at the same Time but look back to those Hours of Anguish which affected every Heart upon the Loss of our late most excellent Sovereign, who had the peculiar Happiness to see his Glories increasing at the Decline of his Life, and nothing wanting to crown that virtuous System of Measures, which under his auspicious Influence had been concerted, but a safe and honourable Peace.

As your Majesty has been graciously pleased to declare from the Throne, That to promote, in every Thing, the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms, will be the Business of your Life; so our Hopes are, that the same wise Measures will be still pursued; and Peace, the great Object of them, in due Time attained.

May Heaven bless your Majesty's Life, thus gloriously employed, with Increase of Honour and Length of Days; and such a continued Series of Prosperity, as may make it memorable to future Ages.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixth Day of January, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-one.

The following Address of the Freeholders and Heritors of the County of Roxburgh, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders and Heritors of the County of Roxburgh, met at Jedburgh the County Town.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders and Heritors of the County of Roxburgh, desire to join with all our Fellow-Subjects, in presuming to offer to your Majesty our most respectful Share of Condolence and Congratulation, upon the Demise of His late Majesty, and your Majesty's happy Accession to the Crown of this united Kingdom, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

The generous Declarations with which your Majesty has graciously begun your auspicious Reign, though they cannot add to our Duty, yet they fill our Hearts with the sincerest Gratitude, and animate our Zeal to emulate the most forward in supporting your Majesty's Government, and the happy Establishment, to which we owe the Blessings of our late Sovereign's Reign over us; and this of your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, at an Age which gives us the pleasing Hope of spending our Lives under your Government.

Signed by Archibald Douglas, of Cavers, Esq; our Preses, by our Appointment, and in our Presence, this 12th of December, 1760 Years.

Arch. Douglas.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough and Corporation of Clitheroe, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeses of the ancient Borough and Corporation of Clitheroe,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeses of Clitheroe, beg Leave humbly to offer this our Address of Condolence on the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign; and of Congratulation on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms. Your Majesty's eminent Virtues afford your faithful Subjects the fairest Prospect of enjoying every Blessing they are capable of, under your auspicious Reign; and it is with the highest Sense of Gratitude we acknowledge these Hopes to be strengthened and confirmed by the gracious Declaration of your Majesty in Council, manifesting the tenderest Affection and Regard for the Welfare of this your native Country, and the profoundest Wisdom in the Choice of Men to support and assist in the Government of it; Means, we trust, (under God) the most effectual to advance and accomplish the great Business of your Majesty's Life, the Promoting the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms, and the Preserving and Strengthening the Constitution both in Church and State. May Divine Providence co-operate with your Majesty's Endeavours for the

Attainment

[Price Three-Pence.]

Attainment of these great and glorious Ends : May your Reign be long and prosperous, and these your Majesty's Dominions as flourishing in the blessed Effects of an honourable Peace, as they are now glorious in the Successes of a great and necessary War.

Given under the Seal of our Borough and Corporation, the Tenth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1760.

The Address from the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders and Heritors of the County of Clackmanan, inserted in last Saturday's Gazette, was presented to His Majesty by James Abercromby, Esq; and not by Lieutenant General Abercromby, as mentioned in the said Gazette by Mistake.
